SCITUATE.

1884—Tuesday.
News is scarce.
Where fault is it?
Cannot see one make some?
Then send it to us, and thus help us out.

A happy New Year to all.
Write it 1884 after next Monday.
The time for making good resolutions approacheth.

Which is followed by eleven months of thirty days of breaking them.

Mr. Chas. Richardson spent Christmas at his home in Newburyport.

Were your stockings well filled?
(Ours are most of the time).

Miss M. A. Tobin is spending a few weeks with her parents.

Mr. Phillip Cogan had a slight paralysis stroke on Sunday last.

We give in this issue the concluding portion of Mr. Merritt's visit to Mammoth Cave.

We hear of several tipsters Christmas day, but do not learn of any serious accident.

The Congregationalist also postponed their tree, but we do not know when it will be held.

Quite a number have paid up their subscriptions to 1885 since our last issue. Who's the best?

Sunday was the coldest day of the season, and for a number of years for that matter, it being 14° below zero.

The Christmas entertainment which was to have been held by the Unitarians, has been postponed till New Year's.

Mr. Frank Doherty has been quite sick for the past two weeks with Rheumatism, but is improving rapidly under the care of Dr. Vinal.

Miss Annie M. Edson was presented with a new sleigh, robe and whip for a Christmas present, by her brother, Edward E. Edson.

Miss Emma and Grace Doherty gave a party, Christmas, at their home. Quite a number were present and they passed a very pleasant time.

Miss Eliza Vinal, in her 54th year, has been quite feeble of late. By good care from her niece and nephew she has so far recovered as to be around again.

Mr. M. J. Driscoll, of the firm of Hall & Co., and Mr. J. McLaughlin, of the Mystic Rubber Co., have been spending a few days at the Murphy House.

How many got the mitten Christmas? We hear of four in one family, one of the number, verging toward a hundred, stating it was the first time in his life.

Intelligence has been received of the arrival of steam whaler Thrasher, Capt. E. S. Manson, at San Francisco, Christmas day, making the trip in 107 days.

The regular monthly meeting of the Rural Improvement Society will be held at the residence of C. T. Chubbuck, Esq., Wednesday evening, Jan. 3. Don't forget it!

Two little fellows were returning from school one day last week, when one complained of being sick. "What's the matter?" asked the other. "How's I know?" was the reply.

The sheep Alpha which was damaged last Sept. by the dragging of an anchor, has been repaired by Mr. L. Rayner. He is to take it to Salem where the owner resides, the first of the season.

We have received from Mr. S. A. Snow, a paper announcing his arrival, with a letter to publication, which we are obliged to hold over one week. Just ours the thermometer at 75°.

We hope our patrons will not forget that we want to commence the new year with every one, but in order to do so we shall need their assistance. Please make your New Year's call upon us with a two dollar bill or in your hand, and we will gladly shake.

If we should go into a person's house, pick up a letter which they were writing and read it, we should be called ill-mannered; yet a person will enter a printing office, walk up to a compositor, read the copy over his shoulder, and think it is all right, but it isn't, it's stealing, which is right in an gentlemanly. Which is the worst?

Mr. Mary Webster Graves, wife of Dr. Josiah Graves, a noted physician and capitalist of Nashua, N. H., died at her home in that city on Wednesday, at the age of 61 years. She was a daughter of the late Col. William Boardman, a noted New Hampshire contractor and builder, and a native of Amesbury, Mass.

Deceased was a member of the Unitarian church, and a woman who was highly esteemed in the community where she resided. She had spent the summers of past years with her husband at a summer residence at Scituate, Mass.—Journal

Despite the unfavorable weather of Tuesday evening, a goodly number of children connected with the M. Z. Sunday School, met at Union Hall, to partake of the bazaar being given for the benefit of the Unitarian church, and to receive their gifts of a bag of candy, pop and oranges, from the Christmas tree.

It was a very enjoyable occasion, the little ones and also made good the hearts of the older ones who worked hard for its success. No value able presents were allowed on the tree, although there were many very pretty Christmas cards, besides what is mentioned above. Misses Olive, Cassie, Lillie, Litchfield and Hattie Young favored the company with singing. It was a grand success.

NORTH SCITUATE.

The fair held by the Band was not very successful, owing to the stormy weather.

Mr. Frank S. Watson and family have moved into the Gannett house on the corner.

Mr. A. A. Seaverns united with having the hearts of his little ones by having a Christmas tree Monday evening.

Two boys upon the back of one horse recently passed through our village, one driving and the other sitting on behind with a bag of flour on his back, evidently thinking he was helping the horse bear the burden.

The Baptist Sunday School held its celebration of Christmas at the church, Tuesday evening, and a very good number were present.

The oyster supper, as announced last week, was given up and a collation of pies and cakes was served instead, together with a bag of candy for each one.

A Christmas exercise was given which was enjoyed by all. Remarks were made by Rev. T. W. Sheppard, Freeman H. Gannett, and a recitation by little Sarah T. Bailey.

One pleasing feature of the evening was the distribution of bonbons, which were snapped and the hats placed upon the head. Singing was interspersed. A very pleasant time.

A Strong Case in Point.

To the Editor of the Transcript: If you will please permit, with this consideration, the following article, which appeared in your paper of Dec. 6, it will further afford an important statement of fact among persons lately cited in maritime affairs.

BEATEN OFF THE HARBOUR.
A ship arrived in the harbor Wednesday whose experiences were remarkable. Captain Deane of the ship T. N. Blackbird, had arrived from Manila, suffering severely from the effects of the "New England" rock.

The ship now rides at anchor off the head of T. wharf. After twenty six days at Manila, where the sea-breeze was happily escaped, and, owing to the captain's precautions, the crew were saved from the terrible epidemic, the ship was hailed from that place on the 25th of June with a cargo of 1500 tons of sugar and 4300 sacks of hemp for Boston.

Comparatively few weeks ago the ship was wrecked on the terrible epidemic, the ship was hailed from that place on the 25th of June with a cargo of 1500 tons of sugar and 4300 sacks of hemp for Boston.

Following the hymn were remarks by the clergy, interspersed with music by the No. Scituate Band, Walter F. Bates, leader, upon the following sentiments: Our Citizens Soldiers, Rev. T. W. Sheppard, Sanitary Commission, Rev. N. Seaver, Jr., Our Unreturned Soldiers, Rev. L. P. Causey.

The Glee Club then very finely rendered the song, "Call of the Roll on High." Remarks were also made by Contralto Thomas Ward of Post 93 of Cohasset, Mass. H. Thomas, Post 93 of Hingham, and Commander Chapman of Post 112, So. Scituate; there were also other delegates from these three Posts present.

After the invitation of Commander Seaverns to partake of the hot chocolate, crackers and cheese, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. T. W. Sheppard.

The following was composed by Miss Catherine Thordike, of Cohasset, Mass. H. Thomas, Post 93 of Hingham, and Commander Chapman of Post 112, So. Scituate; there were also other delegates from these three Posts present.

Dedication of G. A. R. Hall.

The dedication of the G. A. R. Hall of Geo. W. Perry Post 3, took place Wednesday evening under very favorable circumstances. Owing to the storm of the week before it was postponed. The hall was well filled, and the exercises of a very interesting nature.

At about 7:35 Commander Seaverns called the company to order and announced the first on the program, which was a Welcome song by the Glee Club, composed of Messrs. Henry Young, Fred Cole, Webster Hunt and Jason Wade, Miss Bessie Merritt organist. Prayer by Rev. N. Seaver, Jr., followed by a response by the Glee Club. Contralto Thomas F. Bailey, as chairman of the building committee, delivered the keys to the President of the G. A. R. Association, A. Seaverns, with appropriate remarks.

Assist. Gen'l. A. C. Monroe of Brockton was next introduced as the speaker of the evening. He first spoke of Scituate as his native place, of his attending church, when a boy, in the same building in which they had met to dedicate it. He spoke of the good that had been done by the G. A. R. Association in helping the widows and orphans, and disabled soldiers; of the brave deeds done by the boys in service, and appealed to the citizens of Scituate to ever lend a helping hand to Post 3. His remarks, which were very interesting, were interspersed with army reminiscences, and at the close were received with hearty applause.

The following Dedication Hymn, which was composed by Hon. Geo. Lunt for the occasion, was sung, to the tune of America, the audience joining in with the Glee Club:

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,

And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;
And summer's fervor yields,
Our needs are so great;

Oh, in our fraternal folds,
When sorrow's impulse yields,
Our needs are so great;
